issue? We offer a DeShed Treatment that makes the time between grooming less hairy for your house. The length of time between baths increases as an added bonus, unless you just like seeing your groomer.

Does your pet need somewhere to hang out while you're at work? How about some socialization? We also offer day care.

WHAT SETS YOU

Most days, your pet will only need to spend a couple hours with us, unless you have some errands to run and you want them to stay longer. Day care is included in the price of a full groom or bath.

BUSINESS PRINCIPLES:

Here at Dirty Paws, we want to be more than just your groomer. We're working towards lasting friendships with you and your furry children.

The Jack's Pizza Cafe Team would like to thank all Manteca residents for loving our food so much and voting us number 1 in town!

In March 2011 Jack's had its Grand Opening. After only a few months in Manteca we were surprised and delighted to have received the Silver award for best pizza in town. Now in 2013 with the hard work of our Great Employees, and with the help of all of our amazingly loyal patrons who love our food, we have taken home the PLATINUM for Best Pizza, Best Burger, and the Best Lunch in Manteca! None of this would be possible without your help, and we would like to say THANK YOU!

Here at Jack's we opened saying we are "Committed to Quality", and it became our slogan.

We ARE committed to providing the best quality food and service possible, by using only the freshest ingredients and providing superior service.

I'm Grateful for the Support of My Community.

I became an Edward Jones financial advisor because I wanted to be part of a firm that truly puts its clients' needs first. I believe our long-term investment philosophy, conveniently located offices and personal, face-to-face approach show our commitment to helping the people in the communities we serve every single day.

On behalf of Edward Jones and my branch office, it gives me great pride to have been named Readers' Choice Investment Firm by the Manteca Community. This recognition wouldn't have been possible without your support, and for that I'm grateful.

We also offer our members a variety of flexible membership options to fit their needs. By providing options for members to call, click or come in to begin training with us, 24 Hour Fitness stands alone in a commitment to eliminating barriers to exercise. These practices mean that every day, 24 Hour Fitness members experience our dedication to helping them reach their fitness goals with their best interests at heart.

Taquerias La Estrella

Taquerias La Estrella appreciates all the personnel that collaborates so the stars can shine in Manteca making it possible for us to grow and achieve the dream of the Fonseca family. Overall you our clients have made our taquerias and restaurants a family atmosphere where we cater to all ages. Your preference is our honor. Furthermore we would like to thank our non-profit agencies for allowing us to be part of their family; we look forward in working hand in hand to add our grain of sand.

From the bottom of our hearts we would like to thank you for supporting us and letting us take care of you like you deserve. We look forward in seeing you and thank you for supporting us.

Taquerias la Estrella opened their doors on Aug. 17, 1994 by the Fonseca Family. Our first location is located on East Yosemite that offers a live Mariachi on Sundays. From that day forward we have been delighting thousands and thousands of families from the Central Valley with hard work, dedication and professionalism. After the demand of our patrons, for a quality and attentive service restaurant we felt the need to open a second star located in the Raley's Shopping Center, counting on the acceptance of the community on their locations. Thanks to the demand we had the opportunity to take possession of the Corner of Main and Louise, which was vacant for many years. Thank you for your preference on making us a success and for making all of our stars shine on their own with your support. Without you we would not have our desired success. At the Main location we offer the convenience of a drive thru. Lastly our fourth location in Cosumnes River, Sacramento, that counts with a full bar and a live Mariachi on Fridays. Some of our special services are taquizas, social events and catering.

Our specialized Seafood, Molcajete and Micheladas prepared authentically from Culiacan, Sinaloa Mexico. Furthermore we have a juice bar, freshly made to meet your healthy diet regime. Our savory flanes, cheese cakes, and energizing Bionicos prepared with fruit from the region. All of meals are prepared on a daily basis with a strict selection of ingredients, meats, and vegetables from around the world. Our seafood is fresh from the best selection of the season making it possible for us to make magic with our exquisite flavor that makes us different than the rest of the Mexican Restaurants in the area. We also offer our famous salsas from our full service salsa bar to accompany your complimentary chips courtesy of La Estrella.

We look forward in seeing you soon and counting on your continued support. We will be ready to make your visit pleasant. Thank you and bless you from the Fonseca family and their amazing team. Blessings, and that all of your dreams may become a reality. Congratulations to our valued customers for making us their preference. Thousands of thanks!

Jeremy, Francine, and Doug of Legend Music

What is Legend Music? Legend Music opened its doors on March 18, 2011 in Manteca. What had begun as a wild thought two years prior had come to fruition for Doug John, who had just retired from a successful career in the industrial supply field. Together with his life partner, Francie Denis, they took the plunge and started a new business from the ground up, in spite of the bad economy. Since then, the pair have acquired the former Spitzers Sound Stage in Fresno, an iconic landmark for over four decades. Keeping the historic tradition alive, they kept part of the name, now known as Legend Music Sound Stage.

Both locations of Legend Music are equipped with stages, complete with all the trimmings; lights, mics, amps, stools...all ready for their Friday Night Open Mic Nights, clinics and special events hosted throughout the year. Legend Music has an informative web and facebook presence and a weekly newsletter. Legend Music is active in local events in both cities and has a passion for supporting the local music scene and their musicians.

Events at Legend Music

Throughout the year, events are held at both locations of Legend Music. One of the most popular events is the Friday Night Open Mic/Jam Session. These are held weekly, unless scheduling conflicts arise. Our weekly newsletter and facebook posts let our friends and music family know the current schedule. Special events have included guest artists like Doyle Dikes, David Nassie, Randy Sharp and Jack Wesley Routh. Legend Music has hosted Taylor Road Shows, Takamine Petting Zoos, bass clinics, Guitar Wars and Drum Wars.

More to offer

Both locations of Legend Music have excellent, qualified instructors available for private music lessons for guitar, piano, percussion, band/orchestra instruments and vocal.

Contact each location for scheduling and pricing.

Both stores feature Acoustic Rooms for their acoustic guitars; Legend Music Sound Stage has a beautiful cedar-lined room where quality crafted Taylor and Takamine guitars line the walls. Both locations offer a wide selection of fine electric guitars, such as Ibanez, Charvel, and PRS. Other quality lines carried are Korg, TAMA Percussion Plus, Kala and Lanikai ukuleles. Band and orchestra instruments are available for sale and for rent, featuring instruments for Jupiter, Stagg and Eldon. Legend Music also offers pro-audio, DJ and recording equipment and software from Harman/JBL, Crown, Peavey and Mackie.

Repairs are available at both locations of Legend Music. We outsource our repairs to excellent luthiers if our staff is unable to handle it in-house.

Legend Music Manteca has been involved with many local events – hosting an annual car show (Hot Cars & Cool Guitars); a Guitar

Show, donating to local charities events and hosting fund-raising events for ill stricken fellow musicians.

German Glas Werks

IN BUSINESS SINCE:

Larry Lenschmidt and Paul Younker opened a showroom in 1986 for the general public on the North Main Street side of the Bernacchi Building, originally built by Joshua Cowell in 1913. Business flourished and German Glas Werks moved to the East Yosemite Avenue side of the building.

HOW IT WORKS:

Larry has been designing and executing stained glass for 45-plus years and has received international, national, state, and local awards for his work. Paul has been in retail since 1958, owning the first flower shop and beauty salon combo and later a general gift shop which were all successful and were sold over a period of time. After retiring for a second time, Paul moved to Manteca and got bored. With Larry and Paul's expertise, German Glas Werks was born.

SEASONS CHANGE:

The store's merchandise and offerings is impossible to put into descriptive words; it is a visual feast for the eyes and heart.

The merchandise and interior changes every holiday and season, making each shopping trip a new experience. This store has an amazing and extensive array of our stained glass items and Larry's jewelry, carefully selected handcrafted and decorated pieces by U.S. artists and craftsmen from Europe, England, Scotland, Canada,

Japan, Australia, and Mexico. Many pieces are museum quality and offer the discriminating connoisseur, the general collector, and the gift-giver a unique and large selection from which to choose from in all price ranges.

SERVICES

OFFERED: Custom stained glass orders cost no more than a ready-made pattern, but your commissioned design will be one of a kind. We offer non-lead construction for the environmentally conscious client. Kitchen cabinet and pantry door inset with stained glass, side lights and transoms, lamp shades and the high out of reach windows and eye-brow windows are a specialty. We put all our skill and expertise into every custom design we create. We take your concept and nurture it into a creation of lasting beauty. From design selection, through the entire building stages, our desire to please remains paramount. We also offer stained glass, tools, supplies and equipment to the hobbyist and the stained glass artist; if we don't have it we will order it. ... We offer complimentary custom gift wrapping on non-sale items.

Manteca offers 15 murals in downtown

Manteca's murals are designed to give visitors, newcomers and longtime residents alike an insight into the community's culture, history, and economy.

The Manteca Mural Society has finished 15 of 30 planned murals. The best place to start an easy walking tour of the murals completed so far is to start in the 200 block of East Yosemite Avenue of the downtown district.

Sierra's Crown

The first mural on your tour is part of the Veterans Plaza in front of the Legion Hall in the 200 block of West Yosemite Avenue. Ripon artist Dave Peterson's original transparent watercolor of Half Dome is blended with images of Yosemite Valley and Merced River.

The front of the Legion Hall in the 200 block of East Yosemite is a compilation of details such as a rainbow arching above the granite cap, as well as, trout in the Merced River. The mural is particularly dramatic just after sunset where ground lighting creates the feel of nightfall coming to Yosemite Valley.

Crossroads

The mural gracing the Main Street wall of Century Furniture located at Yosemite and Main is Manteca's largest. It covers 4,000 square feet and was created by Dave Gordon.

"Crossroads" depicts what Manteca's business district looked like in 1917. That is when the community was incorporated as a city. It offers the same vantage point you would see standing across the street next to the Bank of America parking lot, but 90 years later.

Cruising

Arguably the most popular of all murals, people who didn't even grow up in Manteca and experience the cruise down Yosemite Avenue in the 1950s and 1960s find themselves reminiscing about bygone days. It is in the 100 block of North Main Street on the Accent Carpets building and is the largest — and most realistic — of all the murals.

Pitching Pumpkins

Across Main Street from the "Cruising" creation to the "Pitching Pumpkins" mural. It pays homage to Manteca's most famous crops — pumpkins. Seventy percent of California's jack-o'-lantern pumpkins are grown in the Manteca countryside.

Rotary Mural

From the "Pitching Pumpkins" mural

you can head west through the parking lot. You will reach the "Rotary Mural" and a new mini-plaza.

Take a minute to rest on one of the benches and enjoy the water fountain and garden. That way you can appreciate the detail of artist Don Gray's salute to the worldwide service efforts of Rotary International.

San Francisco

The next mural is reached by heading south on Maple Avenue. Stay on the east side of the street when you reach Yosemite Avenue. Look upward to the west and you'll see the "San Francisco" mural.

Free-for-All

This is in the 100 block of South Maple Avenue and shows a Manteca barn scene with children playing.

Cow-munity Mural

The society's 96 by 12 foot salute to Manteca's dairy industry is on a wall in the 200 block of West Yosemite Avenue facing the Athens Burgers parking lot.

Bounty of the Valley

The salute to the richness of Central Valley farmland can be found on the alley off the 100 block of Sycamore Avenue.

Manteca Snow

This whimsical mural on Manteca Avenue across from Library Park offers a vantage point out of a window looking into an orchard where children are frolicking in "Manteca snow" - gently falling almond blossoms.

Last at Bat

The 95-foot by 7-foot-6 "Last at Bat" mural at Library Park features 92 spectators. Each face is of a Manteca resident - past and present on the mural that celebrates Manteca's original ball park that was located where Library Park is today

The Yokuts Indians

The Library Park mural shows a family of Native Americans whose ancestral lands are in and around Manteca gathered around the evening campfire listening to the story of creation.

The Pioneers

The Library Park mural depicts the hard struggle to make a living and provide for the family that was faced by farmers that settled the Manteca area before irrigation was developed.

Agriculture

The Library Park mural portrays the bountiful harvests once Manteca farming came into its own with irrigation.

Industry

The mural depicts images of industry from Manteca.

The Family City

Located in the 200 block of North Main Street on the side of Crystal Down's State farm Insurance Agency, the mural is a salute to the different cultures and people that make up Manteca. The City of Manteca's official motto is "The Family City."

HISTORY

From a rail stop to a city of 70,000

Manteca is a true California city of the 21st century.

During the past 118 years, it has grown from a wide spot on the rail line as a skimming station for milk bound for San Francisco, to a city of 70,000 as dependent on the high-tech jobs of the Silicon Valley and Livermore Lab as it is of the agricultural riches growing on once what were referred to as "the sand plains of South San Joaquin County."

But unlike other California cities that have grown out and abandoned their central districts, Manteca has grown in a geocentric pattern from the corner of Main Street and Yosemite Avenue where Joshua Cowell "The Father of Manteca" built his first ranch house.

Manteca started the century with a name. Originally, the stop on the rail line was known as Cowell Station.

Growth was the main issue in 1900 as it is today. But in 1900 Manteca residents universally were clamoring for more growth to help tame and populate the growing agricultural region.

The biggest overpopulation issue wasn't in the schools but with rabbits, owls, squirrels and coyotes. There were even professional squirrel killers who traveled around the community in 1900.

In subsequent years, the Manteca Board of Trade and then other organizations sponsored annual rabbit hunts that attracted hundreds of sportsmen who fanned out over nearby fields and bagged rabbits in a one day hunt. Thousands of rabbits were killed in a bid to keep them from destroying young trees and other crops.

Manteca's early growth was completely tied to agriculture. It was decision by Spreckels Sugar to locate in Manteca that gave Manteca its biggest boost. The man responsible for convincing Spreckels representatives on an inspection trip in 1915 to opt for Manteca for their next sugar beet refinery plant was Ed Powers who eventually built Powers Tract next door to the sugar company to provide housing for servicemen returning from World War II.

Ironically, it was the demise of Spreckels Sugar in 1996 that opened the door for Manteca's biggest economic boost in decades - the 362-acre Spreckels Park.

Manteca started the 20th century as an ideal supplier of farm products to San Francisco, the undisputed major urban center of the West in 1900.

The City was referred to by many as "The Paris of the West."

As the century unfolded, many young Mantecans headed to the Bay Area for jobs after World War II. As the 1960s ushered in the Golden Age of Freeways in California, many Mantecans started commuting to jobs in the blue collar factories of the East Bay and the white collar skyscrapers of San Francisco.

As the Bay Area high-tech expansion took off in the 1970s, Manteca gained popularity as a "bedroom community" to the job-rich Silicon Valley. The trend is still true today although more and more new Manteca residents are employed in the high-tech cradle developing in Pleasanton-Livermore.

The Bay Area is still expected to influence Manteca's economic lot as the 21st century continues to unfold.

But instead of shipping food and other farm products to the City and other Bay Area communities, Manteca is positioning itself to lure businesses that are finding it difficult to cope with the high cost of rent and living in the Bay Area.

Manteca-Lathrop have already landed several firms such as Ford Motor Co. Army-Air Force Exchange Service, B.F. Funsten and SuperSoil, all of which abandoned expensive Bay Area properties, as well as firms such as Hewlett-Packard looking for less expensive rent for distribution operations.

The old Manteca Creamery in the 200 block of West Yosemite Avenue was a popular stop in Manteca for three generations of Bay Area travelers to and from the Sierra.
